The Association through its Board of Directors shall from time to time, and at least annually, prepare a budget for the Condominium, determine the amount required to meet the Common Expenses of the Association, and allocate and assess such Common Expenses against the Unit Owners in proportion to his undivided share in the Common Expenses. Common Expenses shall include, but shall not be limited to, all charges for taxes (except real property taxes and other such taxes which are or may hereafter be assessed separately on each Unit and the person property or any other interest of the owner); assessments; insurance, including fire and other casualty and liability insurance; cost of repair; reinstatement, rebuilding and replacement of the Condominium Buildings; yard, janitorial, and other similar services; wages; accounting and legal fees; upkeep of the exterior sidewalls of the Condominium Building plus upkeep of all sidewalks, other passage ways, and all other Common Elements of the Condominium property appurtenant thereto or contained therein; and other necessary expenses of upkeep, maintenance and operation actually incurred on or for the Common Elements; and the reserve established to provide for maintenance, repair, reinstatement, rebuilding and replacement, working capital, obsolescence, and other appropriate purposes. Payments of Common Expenses shall be made to the Association and the Association shall transmit said payments on behalf of each owner to the third person entitled to said payments. The Association shall advise each Unit Owner in writing of the amount of Common Expenses payable by him, and shall furnish copies of each budget on which Common Expenses are based to all Unit Owners.

Section 2. Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water shall be supplied to all of the Units through individual meters and the Common Elements through one or more building meters, and the Board shall pay, as a Common Expense, if applicable, all charges for water consumed on the Condominium Property, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom promptly after the bills therefor are rendered. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for charges for water consumed on his unit, and related sewer rents arising therefrom. In the event of a proposed sale of a Unit by a owner thereof, the Board, on request of the selling Unit Owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to the Purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water and sewer rents affecting the Condominium Property on as of the date of closing of title to such Unit promptly after such charges have been billed by the utility company.

Section 3. Gas and Electricity. The bills for gas and electricity serving the Common Elements shall be paid by the Board of Directors as a common expense.

Section 4. Taxes and Assessments. Each Unit Owner shall be obligated to have the real property taxes for his condominium parcel assessed separately by the proper governmental authority and to pay all such real property taxes so determined directly to the proper governmental authority. The foregoing sentence shall apply to all types of taxes which now are or may hereafter be assessed separately by law on each Condominium Unit or the personal property or any other interest of the owner. Each owner shall be obligated to pay his proportionate share of any assessment by the Board for any portion of taxes or assessments, if any, assessed against the entire Condominium Property or any part of the Common Elements as a whole and not separately, such payment to be made as directed by the Board. If, in the opinion of the Board, any taxes or assessments may be a lien on the entire Condominium Property or any part of the Common Elements, the Board may pay such taxes or assessments and shall assess the same to the owners in their proportionate share. Such assessments by the Board shall be secured by a privilege on the condominium units.

Section 5. Payment of Common Expenses. All Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay the Common Expenses assessed by the Association pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws at such time or times as the Association shall determine.

Section 6. Collection of Assessments. The Association shall assess Common Expenses against the owners from time to time and at least monthly and shall take prompt action to collect from an owner any Common Expenses which remain unpaid by him.

(a) The Association shall have a lien on a Condominium Unit, as provided in the Louisiana Condominium Act and the Declaration, for all unpaid sums assessed by the Association for the unit's share of Common Expenses, reasonable attorney's fees, and interest on the unpaid amount at the legal interest rate. The Association shall have power to bid in the Unit at foreclosure sale, and to hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. Reasonable attorney's fees and expenses in connection with the collection of the debt shall be paid by the owner against whom any action is brought.

(b) Where the mortgagee of the mortgage of record or other purchaser of a Unit obtains title to the Unit as a result of foreclosure of the mortgage or by acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title, his successor and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of the Common Expenses chargeable to such Unit which became due prior to the acquisition of title to the Unit by such acquirer, but such unpaid share of Common Expenses shall be deemed to be Common Expenses collectable from all of the Unit owners, including such acquirer, his successor and assigns.

Section 8. Statement of Common Expenses. The Board of Directors shall promptly provide any Unit Owner, who makes a request in writing, with a written statement of his unpaid Common Expenses.

Section 9. Abatement and Enjoining of Violations. The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board, or the breach of any Bylaw contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration shall give the Board the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Bylaws: (a) to enter the Unit which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to, summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing, or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or (b) to enjoin, abate, or remedy such thing or condition by appropriate legal proceedings.

Section 10. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owners. No unit owner shall make any structural addition in or to his Unit, without the prior written consent thereto of the Board of Directors. The Board shall have the obligation to answer any written request by a Unit Owner for approval of a proposed structural addition in such Unit Owner's Unit within 30 days after such request, and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Board to the proposed addition. Any application to any governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any unit shall be executed by the Board. Neither the Board nor the Association shall be liable to any contractor, subcontractor, or materialmen or to any person sustaining personal injury or property damage, for any claim arising in connection with such addition, alteration or improvement.

No unit owner shall make any alteration, decoration, repair, replacement, change or paint, nor place any screens, jalousies or other enclosures on his unit, the common elements, limited common elements or condominium buildings without the prior written approval of the Board. However, nothing herein shall prohibit a unit owner from making any improvements or alterations to his unit that do not impair the structural integrity or mechanical systems or lessen the support of any portion of the condominium, but no two or more units shall be combined without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 11. Right of Access. A Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his Unit to any person authorized by the Board to make inspections; to correct any condition originating in his Unit and threatening another unit or a Common Element; to install, alter, or repair mechanical or electrical services in his Unit or elsewhere in the building; and to correct any condition which violates the provisions of any mortgage covering another unit. Requests for such entry shall be made in advance and such entry shall be scheduled for a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. However, in case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not.

Section 12. Rules of Conduct. Rules and regulations concerning the details of the operation and use of the condominium property may be promulgated and amended by the Board. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board to each Unit Owner prior to their effective date.

a member of the Board of Directors, and one to be appointed by each party; and the award in writing signed by any two of them shall be final; provided that such award shall be made within thirty (30) days after the reference to the said arbitrators. If either party shall refuse or neglect to appoint an arbitrator within fifteen (15) days after the other shall have appointed an arbitrator and served written notice thereof upon the other requiring him to appoint an arbitrator, then the arbitrator so appointed by the first party shall have power to proceed to arbitrate and determine the matters of disagreement as if he were an arbitrator appointed by both parties for the purpose, and his award in writing signed by him shall be final; provided that such award shall be made within thirty (30) days after such refusal or neglect of the other party to appoint an arbitrator. The parties to the arbitration shall share the expense thereof.
